The brothers and sisters of the late HENRY DAVISS MARGESSON, Esq., who was lost on the coast of Japan, 17th June, 1869, have given, in memory of their deceased brother, the large and acceptable sum of £300 toward the project. The Bishop of Victoria is able to offer £200 more, on condition of immediate progress. The Committee of the Sailors Home, with permission of the Government, give an excellent site adjoining the Institution and the Harbour; and they give their full sanction to a design so calculated to benefit the "Home," and to prove so great, an accommodation to the many European Besidents at West Point. The sum required is estimated at 21,500. One third and the site are ready. A Chaplain has been provided. A grant from the Government will be applied for and it is hoped that £500, raised now in Hongkong, will secure the Colony another Church." Shall not the return of Peace to the Con timent of Europe and the impetus to Commerce with its anticipated profits, which has already encod, be regarded as an auspicious occasion for the promotion of so good a work, calculated to confer a lasting benefit upon the Colony, and presenting to view from the noble harbor of Hongkong so appropriate an emblem of "Peace on carth, good will toward men."?

by the proceedings before the CHIEF-JUSTICE with reference to the rendition of Kwok-Asino, we have now to consider the general merits of the case. It is one of an obyiously complicated nature, involving considerations of the authority of the Portuguese. of the French and of the Chinese as well as the jurisdiction and the obligations of this Colony. In such cases it is highly desirable to take as simple a view of the question as possible, and to endeavour to solve the problems which it suggests upon the plainost and Chinese Law. What, then are the broadfacts? was the duty of the Chinese to follow him up and bring him to justice. He eludes them in China and comes to Hongkong; and his rendition is demanded under Tronty. The French authorities make no objection to his being given up to the Chinese, in case by a technicality, it should appear that the orime is against France; -a technicality, it may be observed by the way, which it would be beyond the Obinese to understand, - and this acquiescence amounts to a claim for the man being made jointly by France and Chi-We cannot give him to France, but we can deliver him to China. IMPEBIAL QUARTO. ENGLISH AND CHINESE DICTIONARY WITH THE ... PUNTI AND MANDARIN PRONUNCIATION. An Anglo-Chinese Dictionary, by the Rev.

W. LOBSCHEID, published at the Daily

TAOK scope and practical service this Work stands unrivalled, All the new words which the Chinese bave of late years been compelled to coin to express the numerous objects in machinery, photography, telegraphy, and in science generally, which the rapid advance of foreign relations has imposed upon them, are here given in extense. Each and every word is fully illustrated and explained, forming exercises for students of a most instructive nature. Both the Court and Ponti pronunciations are given, the accents being carefully marked on the best principle hitherto attained. The typography displays the success of an attempt to make the Chinese and English type correspond n the size of body, thereby effecting a vast conomy of space, achieving a clearmen not previously attained, and dispensing with those vast margins and vacant epaces which have beretofore characterized Chinese publications. The scope of the work is so great, and its ntilitarian purposes so complete, that a re-ference to its pages enables a person who understands English to communicate effectively with natives who understand nothing but Chinese. In this respect the work will be found tortured into a crime because, according to his BERRY & PLACE, I oporters and dealers indispensable to all Europeans residing in master, the prisoner was a poor man.
